Your scientific career

Lunch seminar on how to fund your professional goals

Organised by the Coordination Office for the Promotion of Early Career Researchers
Speaker: Simone Rufener, PhD, Grants Advisor

- Will you soon get your long-awaited PhD degree but don’t know what’s next?
- Are you considering staying in research but don’t know what steps to take?
- Are you interested in information about your opportunities in research?
- Do you want to stand on your own feet and find your own funding?

If so, join the information event for young researchers on funding opportunities in and outside Switzerland!
Open to PhD students from the Graduate School for Cellular and Biomedical Science and the Graduate School for Health Sciences. No registration necessary.

Thursday, 29.06.2017, 12.15 – 13.00
Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry
Freiestrasse 3, 3012 Bern, EG 16